The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount has mostly observed to two the base of the company of the premium of the he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

No. 677 Broadway, New York. N. B.-A WORD OF EXPLANATION those who have known us under the style of Evans & Co. The business located by us at No. 677 Broadway, New York City, is the oldest established house in the country, and is known world-wide as the original 'EVANS & CO.'S GIFT BOOK-STORE." Many have taken the advantage of our popularity, to advertise under the same name, to increase their trade-to protect the few who may be unacquainted with us, we would state that we have no connection with any other Gift Book House—and though many advertise under the name of Evans & Co., the firm constituted by D. W. EVANS and J. H. PRESTON, is the first and only concern rightfully using the name. But to prevent all confusion in the future, we shall use the style of D. W. EVANS & CO., and all persons wrongfully using the appellation to mislead the public, will be made to suffer the penalty of the law.

MODERN ELIJAHS. It is not well always to look on the shady side of affairs. There are men who came FIFTH into existence under a shadow, and the sha-YEAR. dow has dogged their lives, and all that is bright and pure and beautiful takes the sombre hue of their own fancies. Their religion consists of bemoaning the evils of the world, in lamenting the gradual decadence of good, and in regarding all home evils and foreign complications as, "signs of the times." They are the Elijahs, who retire into the wilderness of their own contemplations, sayinging "I, even I only am left," unconcious that all the time there are not only the "seven thousand who have not bowed the knee unto ... 2 50 to 12 00 Basl," but that multitudes are everywhere obeying the gospel call. They are the Jonahs sitting under the gourds of their own security, amazed that the judgments of God do not descend upon a guilty world. These hypochondriacs, are seldom found among the earnest workers, who seek to leave the world better than they found it, but among those who see its evils and sit with folded hands. NUTRITIVE QUALITIES OF THE ONION. The onion deserves notice as an article of great consumption in this country, and it rises in importance when we consider that in some countries, like Spain and Portugal, it forms one of the common and universal supports of life. It is interesting, therefore, to know that, in addition to the peculiar flavor which first recommends it, the onion is remarkably nutritious. According to analysis, the dried onion root contains from twenty-five to thirty per cent. of gluten. It ranks, in this respect, with the nutritious pea and the grain of the east. It is not merely as a relish, therefore, that the wayfaring Spaniard eats his onion with his humble 2 50 crust of bread, as he sits by the refreshing spring; it is because experience has long proved that, like the cheese of the English laborer, it helps to sustain his strength, also, and adds-beyond what its bulk would suggest-to the amount of nourishment which his simple meal supplies. - Harrisburg Union.

> UNSUCCESSFUL IN THIS LIFE. I confess that increasing years bring with them an increasing respect for those who do not succeed in life, as those words are com-monly used. Heaven is said to be a place for those who have not succeeded upon earth; and it is surely true that celestial graces do not best thrive and bloom in the hot blaze of wordly prosperity. Ill success sometimes rises from superabundance of qualities in themselves good, from a conscience too sensitive, a taste too fastidious, a self-forgetfulness too romantic, a modesty too retiring. I will not go so far as to say, with a living poet, that, "the world knows nothing of its greatest men," but there are forms of greatness, or at least excellence, that die and make no sign; there are martyrs that miss the palm but not the stake; there are heroes without the laurel, and conquerors without the triu mph .- Hilliard.
